Membership/Friend Application

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member or friend of the Association of Saints Church Radio Amateurs (ASCRA), the official amateur radio club affiliated with Community of Christ. As a member, you will be entitled to nominate or run for office and vote for members of the Board of Directors and hold any office in local chapters, subject to the requirements of the Bylaws of the Association. Only licensed amateur radio operators (of any nation) may be members of the Association. Friends of the Association are persons, who are not licensed amateur radio operators and may or may not be members of Community of Christ, but are interested in supporting the Association and amateur radio. Friends may not hold any office or vote in any election.

Please fill out and return the following application to the address listed above, or by email to the Executive Director or Secretary of the Association, which may be found at <http://www.ascra.org/officer.htm>. No membership dues are charged by the Association, however, the Association relies entirely on donations for continued operation of WØSHQ and publication of the In-Service newsletter, which you will receive by mail upon acceptance of this application. The Association is a registered 501(c)3 charitable institution and donations may be tax-deductible. Please consider including a contribution to ensure the future operations of ASCRA.
